

Relationships and Families

Year 11 Unit 2 (Paper 2: Thematic Studies)

1. LO Sexuality- what are some religious views?

2. LO What are some different religious views on sex before marriage and contraception?

3. LO What do Christians and Hindus believe about the nature and purpose of marriage?

4. LO What are the different Christian views about divorce?

5. LO What are some different views about the nature and purpose of families?

6. LO What do religions teach about gender equality?

This unit explores issues of sexuality, relationships, Contraception, marriage and parenting, divorce and remarriage and gender equality.

As well as being examined as part of your AQA Religious Studies Paper 2, these are important social, moral, cultural and philosophical issues for you to consider for life in general.

You will consider different views within the Christian and Hindu communities, as well as giving evidence for your own views and opinions.

Adultery - having sex with someone you are not married to.

Annulment - the cancellation of a marriage.

Civil marriage - non-religious marriage ceremony.

Celibacy - not having sexual relationships.

Chastity - keeping yourself sexually pure e.g. no sex before marriage.

Cohabitation - living together as a couple.

Contraception -precautions to prevent pregnancy and STIs.

Divorce - legal ending of a marriage.

Extended family - a nuclear family plus other relatives, living with the family e.g. grandparents.

Family- parents and their children as a group.

Gender Equality - the idea that men and women are equal.

Heterosexual - someone who is physically attracted to the opposite sex.

Homosexual - someone who is physically attracted to the same sex.

Monogamy- having one husband or wife.

Nuclear family - mum and dad plus children

Polygamy- having more than one wife at the same time.

Procreation- the biological process of a couple producing children.

Remarriage - marriage a second time after a divorce.

Single parent family - a family of either a mum or dad, plus children

